

Panel 4 (1:30pm-3:10 pm)
Theoretical Perspectives on Global Responsibility

Chair: Ninon Grangé (Philosophy, University of Paris 8)/ Lyn Boyd Judson (Levan Institute USC)

* John Dreher, Philosophy, USC Dornsife, 'Implementing Global Standards of Justice and the Common Good (A Theoretical Perspective on Global Responsibility)'

* Phillip A. Lobo, Comparative Literature, USC Dornsife, 'Modeling Modernity: World-building Practices in Nostromo and Tropicó'

* Frederique Leichter-Flack, Literature, University of Paris Ouest, 'From disaster emergency to extensive and implicit uses of 'triage': ethical issues, responsibilities and perceptions'

* Jean-Louis Fournel, Italian Studies, University of Paris 8, and Isabelle Delpla, University of Montpellier III, Philosophy), 'Criminal Responsibility, Political Responsibility and Moral Responsibility: Cross-Analysis of the Investigations and Reports on the Srebrenica Massacre (July 11, 1995)'

Panel 5 (3:30-4:45pm)
Location, Appropriation and Struggles for Justice

Chair/Discussion : Laure Blévis (Sociology, Paris Ouest) / Marie-Claire Lavabre (Political Science, Paris Ouest-CNRS)

* Edwin Hill, USC Departments of French and Italian, Comparative Literature, 'La Rage: Losing It in the French Peripheries'

* Clemens Zobel, Political Science, University Paris 8, 'Local conventions and the downscaling or responsibility through decentralization: considering the moral economy of gold mining in Southern Mali'

* Thomas Brisson, Political Science/Labtop, 'Global Human Rights? Authoritarian rulers, Confucian intellectuals and the question of the cultural boundaries of justice in Asia in the 1990-2000s'

5pm: Conclusion

International Conference
Ethics and Practices of Responsibility

November 19-20, 2012

Location: MSH-Paris Nord

Directions to the MSH Paris Nord

MSH Paris Nord
4 rue de la croix Faron
93210 St-Denis la Plaine

RER B La plaine/Stade de France

<http://www.mshparisnord.fr/fr/la-msh-paris-nord/contacts/acceder-a-la-msh-pn.html>

Event sponsors:

Université Paris 8 (BQR), CERPHI CNRS, Labtop-Paris 8, Institut Universitaire de France, ISP-Paris Ouest/CNRS, USC Dornsife College of Letters, Arts and Sciences (USC Center for International Studies, USC Levan Institute for Humanities and Ethics), USC Shoah Foundation.

We thank the MSH Paris-Nord for hosting the event.

Day 1: Monday, November 19

Opening 10am

Panel 1 (10:30am-11:45)

Institutional and Legal Mechanisms of Responsibility

Chair/discussion: Laurence Dubin and Pierre Bodeau-Livinec (Legal Studies, Paris 8)

* Alison Dundes Renteln, Political Science, USC Dornsife, 'A Comparative Analysis of Good Samaritan Laws: Toward a Global Duty to Rescue'

* Guillame Mouralis, History, University of Paris 8, 'The Nuremberg Trial: Connecting the Careers and Paths of American Lawyers and the Prevailing Conceptions of Justice and Human Rights'

* Zsuzsa Londe, USC American Language Institute, 'Assessing Norms (in UN HR Language)'

Lunch & Coffee

Panel 2 (1:30-2:45pm)

Claims for Justice, Accountability and Responsibility Assignment

Chair: Patricia Paperman (Political Science, Paris 8)/ Discussant: Alison Renteln (Political Science, USC)

* Damien de Blic, Political Science/Labtop, University of Paris 8 and Judith Assouly, CERSES-University of Paris 5, 'Who Does What in Financial Scandals? Moral and Political Sociology of the Kerviel Case'

* Sandrine Lefranc, Political Science, University of Paris Ouest, 'For a Different Justice: The Convergence of Transnational Trends for Restorative Justice'

* Dan Leshem, USC Shoah Foundation Institute, 'Establishing a Global Archive: The Politics and Ethics of Worldwide Testimony Collection Practices'

Panel 3 (3pm-4:15pm)

Power and Responsibility: Media, Celebrities and Politics

Chair: Ann Crigler (Political Science, USC Dornsife) / Discussant: Dan Leshem (USC, Shoah Foundation Institute)

* Steven J. Ross, History, USC Dornsife & Co-Director, Los Angeles Institute for the Humanities, 'Movement Leader, Grassroots Builder: Jane Fonda and Dual Strategy for Politicizing the Public'

* Violaine Roussel, Sociology/Labtop, University of Paris 8, 'Celebrities in Arenas of Public Intervention: Responsibility and Representation Struggles'

* Georges Meyer, Political Science/Labtop, University of Paris 8, 'The responsibility of movie makers. Censorship and scandal movies in France at the turn of the seventies'

5:30-7:30pm: Reception at The University of Paris 8 (La Coupole)

Day 2: Tuesday, November 20

Student Roundtable (10:00 am-12pm)

Chairs: Violaine Roussel (Sociology, Paris 8) and Ann Crigler (Political Science, USC Dornsife). Discussants from Paris 8 and Paris Ouest

* James Michael Alberto Bell, Spanish and Biological Sciences, USC Undergraduate, 'A World in Need: Evaluating Spanish and British Healthcare'

* Orli Chava Robin, Creative Writing & Judaic Studies, USC Undergraduate, 'Global Polyphony in Fiction: A Quest for Restorative Tolerance'

* Marissa A. Roy, Philosophy, Politics and Law, USC Undergraduate, 'The UN's Eight Millennial Goals and the Unpopularity of Global Distributive Justice'

Lunch & Coffee