

ERUA Travelling Seminars

Take your students and travel with them to one of the ERUA partner universities!

The ERUA (European Reform University Alliance) is launching its first call for projects “Travelling seminars”.

Why should you apply?

The call for travelling seminars offers all interested teaching staff the opportunity to visit one of Paris 8’s ERUA partners in the context of a collaborative learning in the field experience.

ERUA’s travelling seminars support experimental and innovative pedagogical approaches and formats that promote varied types of cooperation and civic engagement.

What do you need to know before your application?

- Duration of a travelling seminar:
From 3 days to 5 days + 2 travel days (please consider budget available) between September 2021 and June 2022
- Number of participants:
Approx. 10 students and 1 (perhaps 2) course coordinator(s)
- Funding:
 - Travelling and accommodation expenses will be covered by a grant of 600€ per student
 - Course coordinators can be financed through Erasmus+ Teaching Staff Mobility
- Format:
The travelling seminars must include short-term mobilities and take place at the location of one of the other partner universities. Innovative forms of collaboration can include co-teaching, excursions, visiting a seminar / lab / working group / workshop etc.

How do you apply?

Submit your project (see and fulfill full call for project document) by email before May 31st 2021 to: lea.meunier03@univ-paris8.fr (Subject: Application travelling seminars)
